You follow your road
I'll follow mine
and the two shall cross
from time to time.

Somehow it will be
then; we will each need a sometimes always friend.

1979

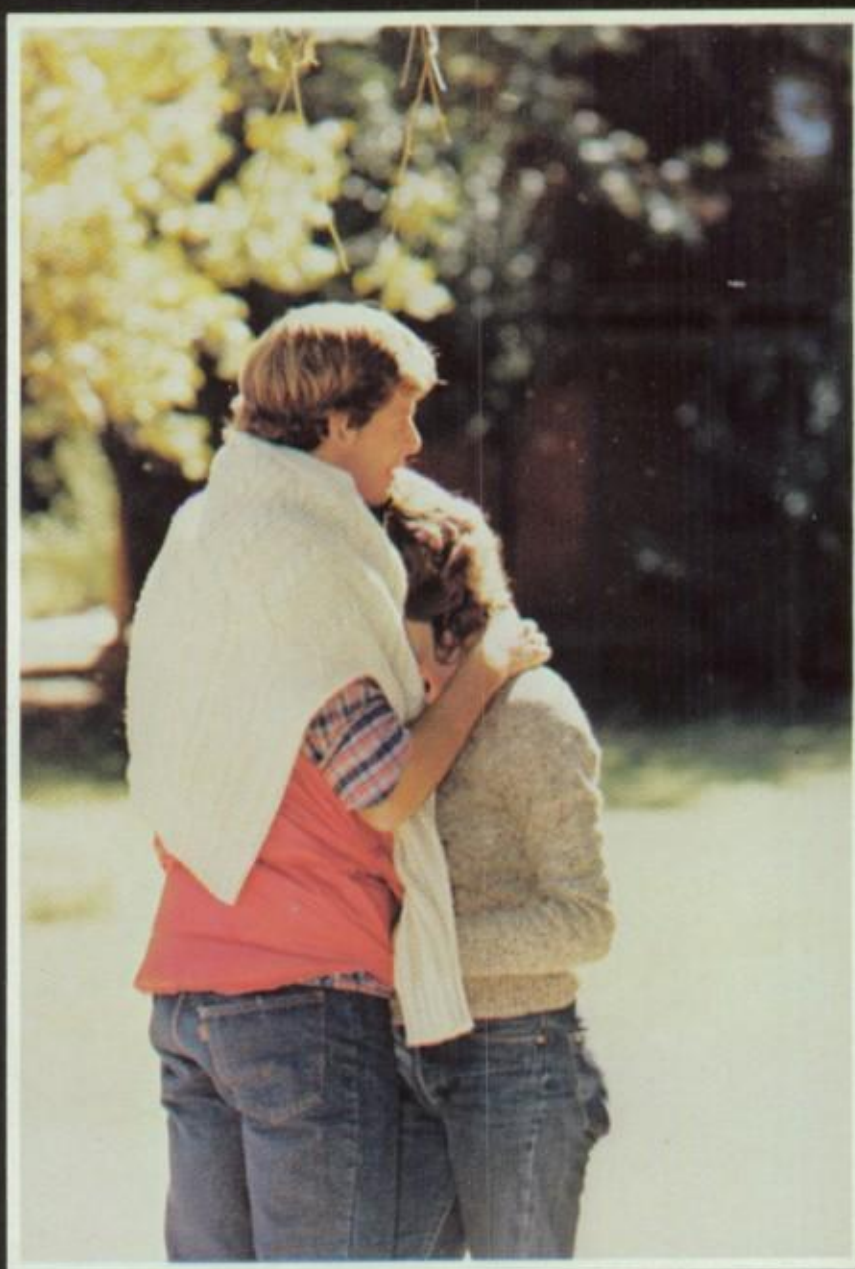

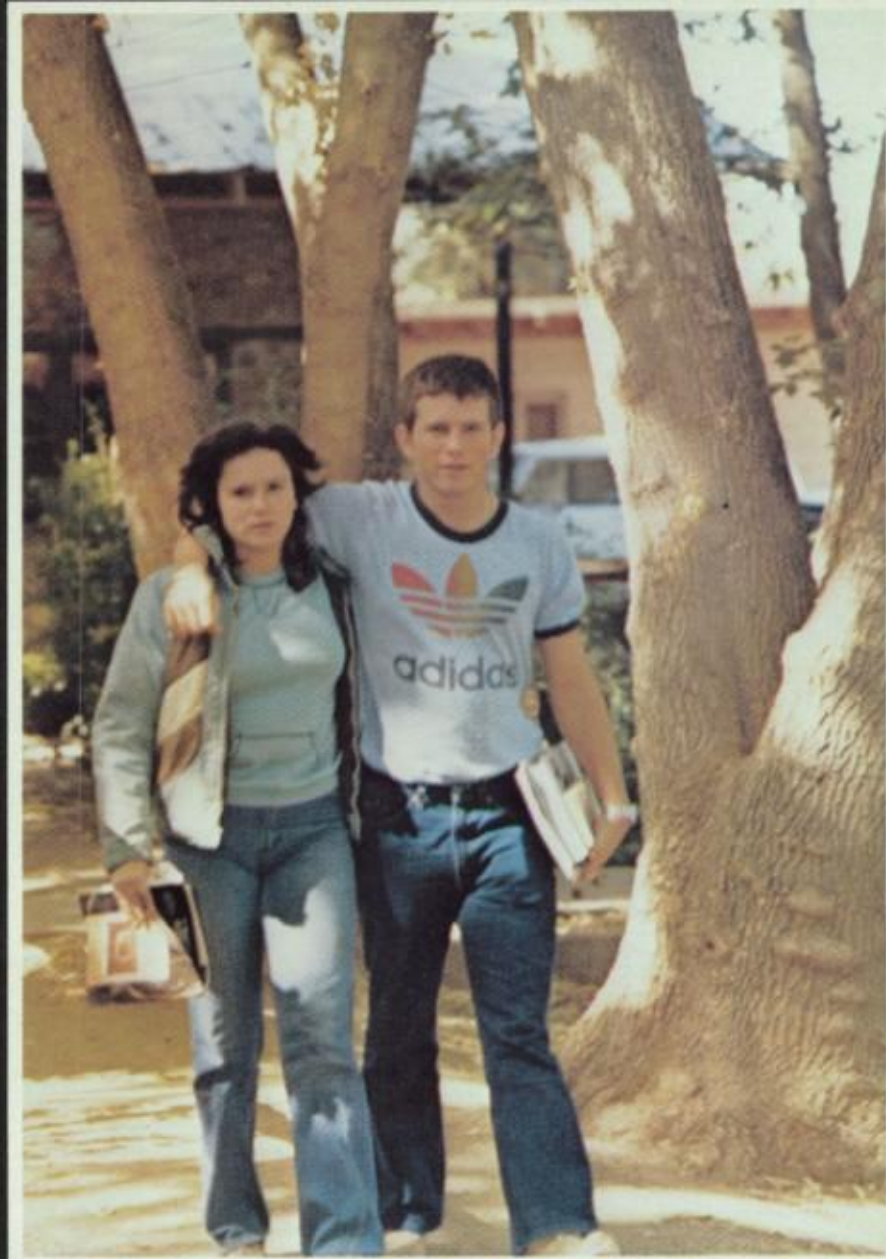

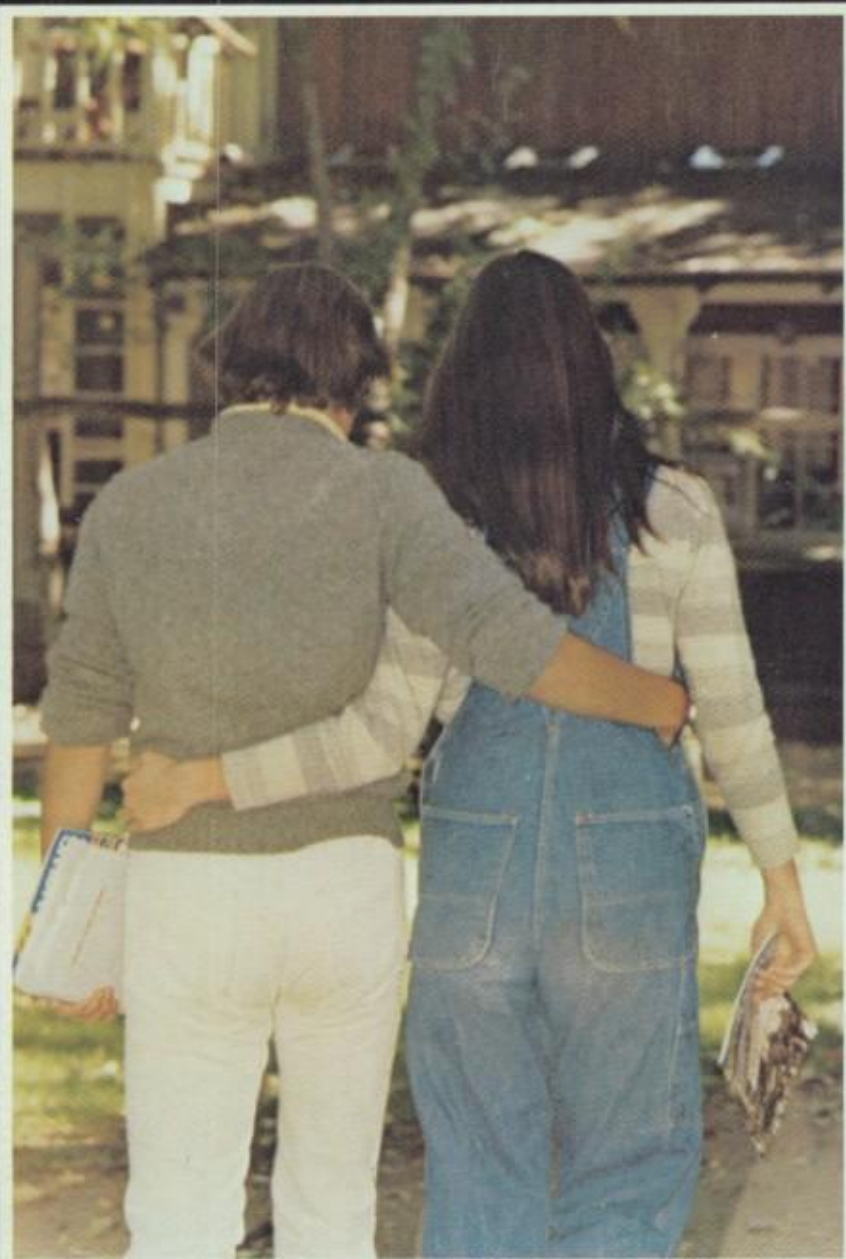

You go your way
I'll go mine
and let our roads
cross forever
from time to time.

Kaitlin Backlund.

The Orme school,
full of beauty,
place full of nature,
a place full of the true meaning of friendship.
What a lucky person I am to have experienced such a way of life!

Where the grass is green
Where the sun does shine.
Where the people are sincere.
These are all friends of mine.
What a lucky person I am to have
experienced such a life!

It's an invitation to learn.
 It's a place to become aware of the wonders of mother nature.
 It's a place to grow.
 What a lucky person I am to have
 experienced such a life!

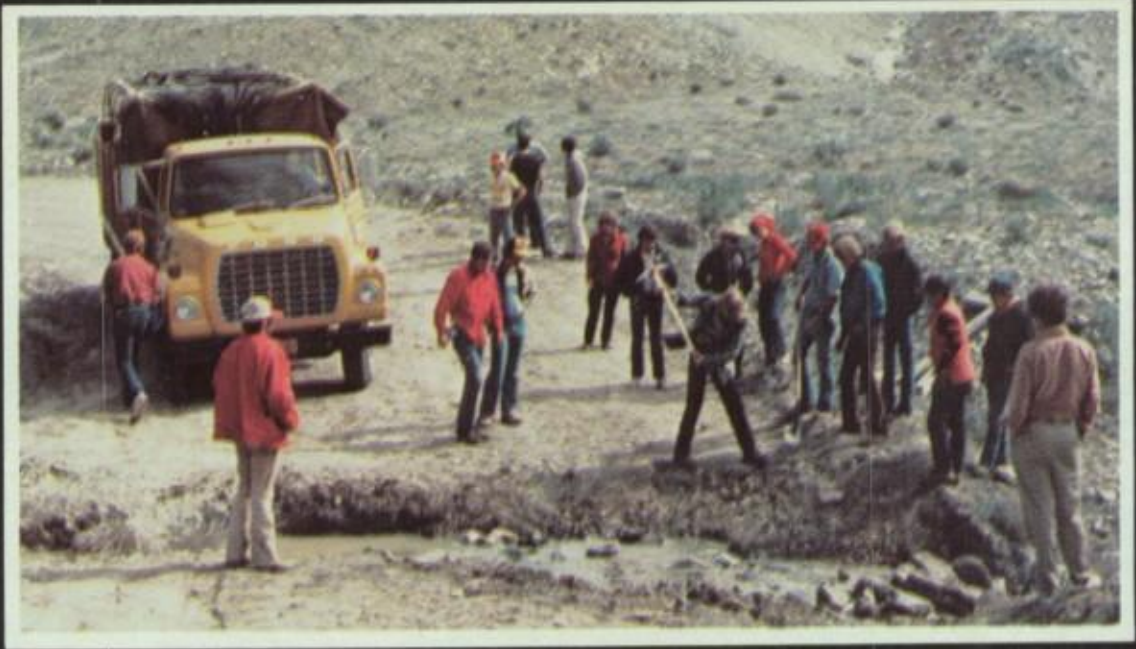

The time has come for us to move on. It is time to give someone else the chance to experience this way of living.

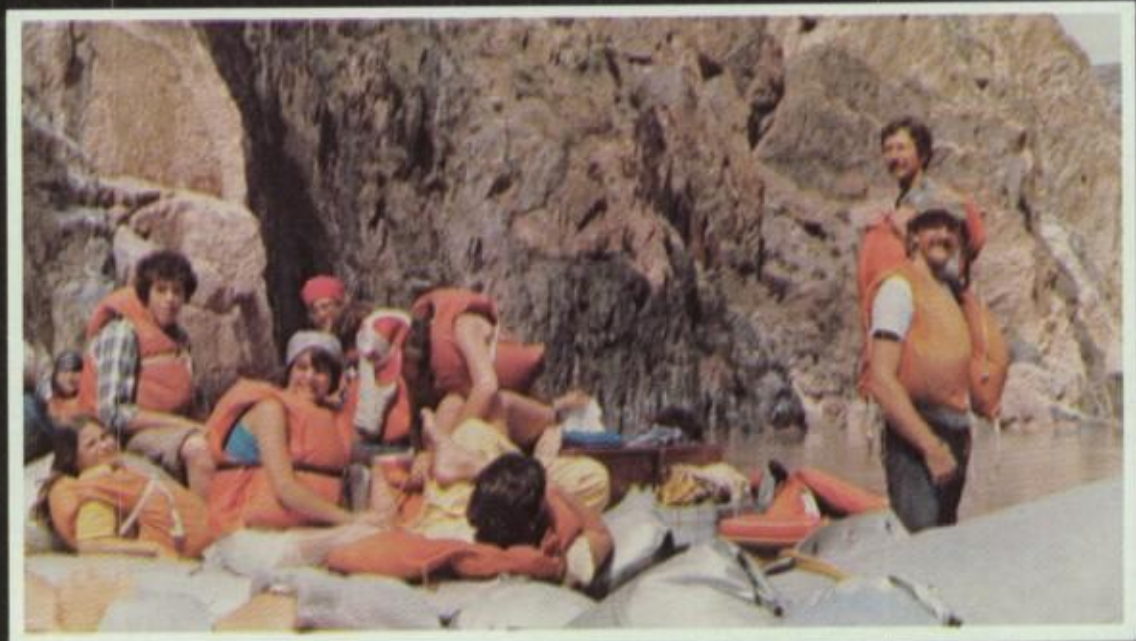

Thank you, Lord, for letting me have experienced such a way of life!!

Main Caravan (Utah)

River Trip (Grand Canyon)

Gem Trails (Southern Arizona)

Mexico City and Guadalajara Trip.

The Backpacking Trip (New Mexico)

Mexico Homestay (Caborca).

Caravan is always an exciting time in the Orme School year. This event takes place during each spring term. It is a 10 day outing. This past caravan of 1979, six different trips were offered to the students. The traditional trip, known as Main Caravan headed up north to pay a visit to Zion National park in southern Utah. This trip was lead by Buck Hart. It was an enjoyable excursion and the students involved returned to school with many thrilling stories!

The Colorado river trips were lead by Bob Miller and Jack Rowe. This group drove up to the rim of the Grand Canyon at which point they hiked down the rim to reach the wild rapids of the Colorado. As one student explained "I thought I was part of a National Geographic picture."

The Gem Trails trip headed south to explore the old mines of Arizona. This trip was under the supervision of the Garst's and the Davis's. The group learned alot about the southern part of Arizona. Gem Trails reached as far south as Bisbee, Arizona, one of the famous old mining towns, filled with many exciting sights.

Merri Steltzer took a smaller group down to Mexico City and Guadalajara. Our Students enjoyed this thoroughly. It gave many students a different view and understanding of how people in other parts of the world live. One of the participants exclaimed "It was absolutely beautiful!"

The Backpacking caravan headed over to New Mexico. This was a tiring experience for those involved. Stu Bolton and Marge Edwards were the instructors of this outing. It was 10 long days of hiking. When these students returned, they were exhausted, but once they returned we heard many interesting stories about their experience.

The sixth trip took a bus load of students down to a small village in Mexico, Caborca, where the participants were to live with a Mexican family during their caravan experience. The Alvarez's were in charge of this trip. It was a most exciting trip and an entirely different culture was experienced.

Hey, dude, what's up?

"Yes, you have a package!"

"I'm not missing any classes!"

"The couple of the year."

"Billy, do you realize that we're locked out!?"

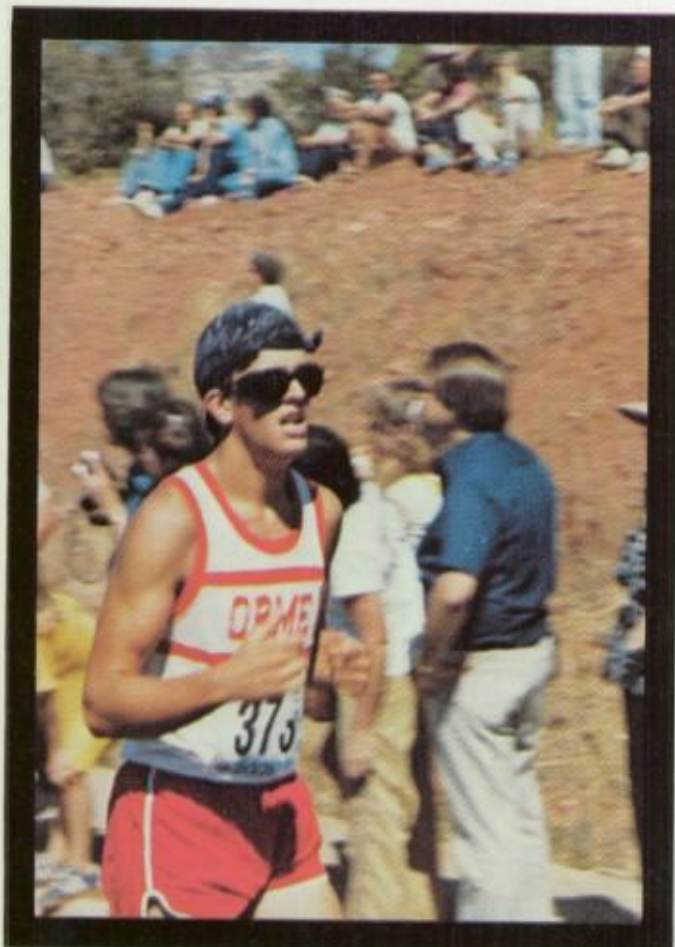

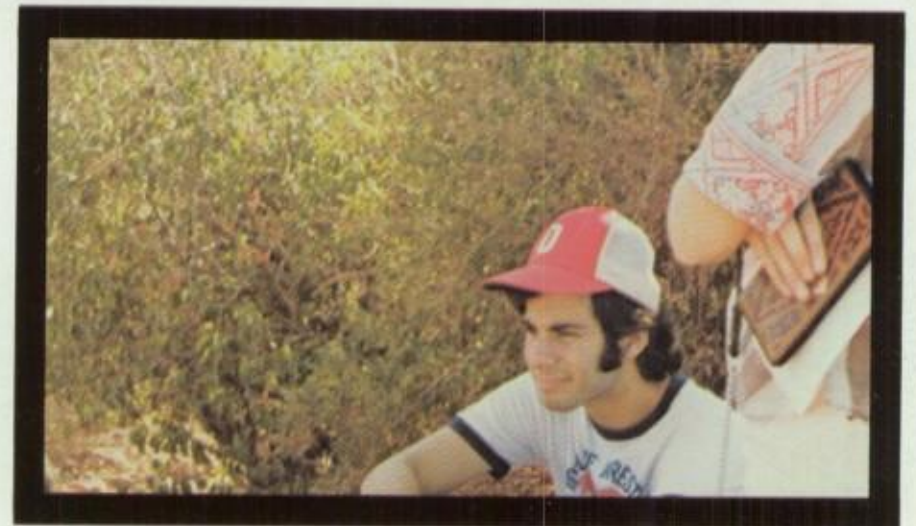

"Now, what did you call that sickness!?"

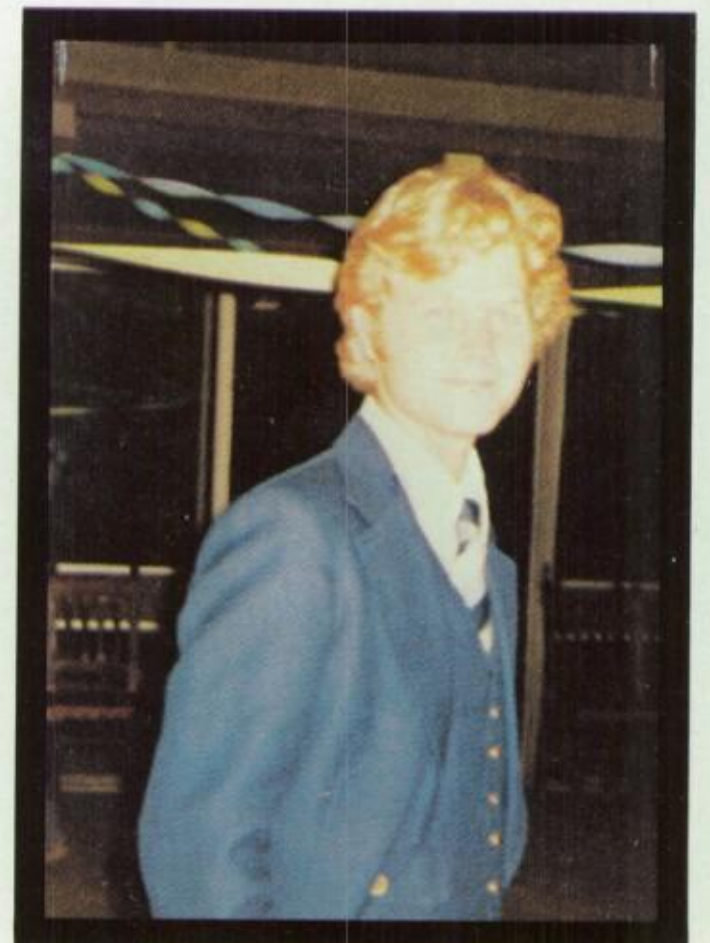

"I think I'll join the circus!"

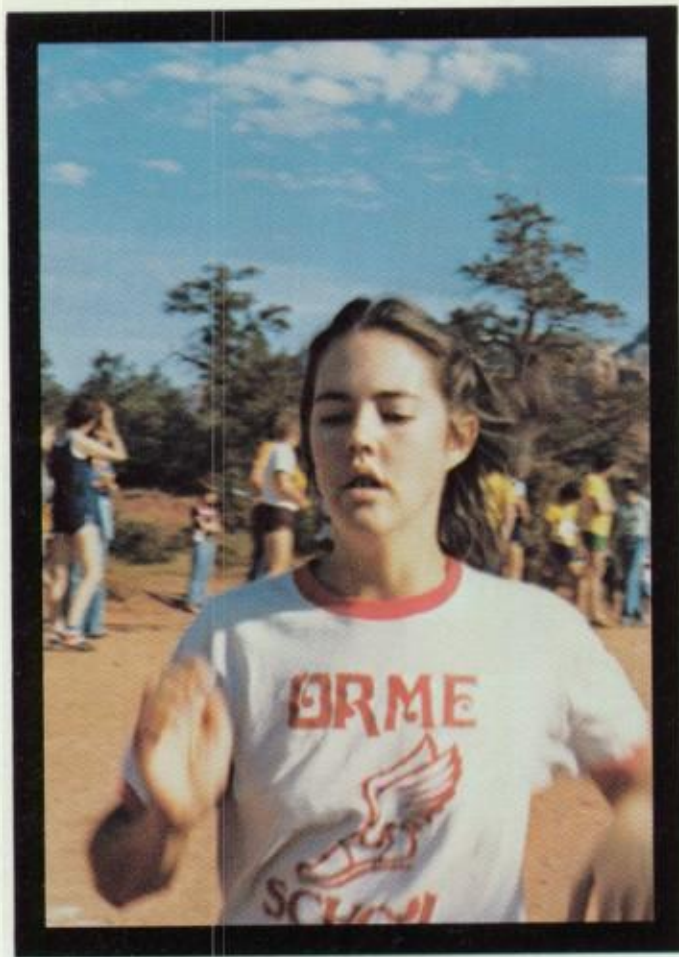

"I don't remember what our homework was!"

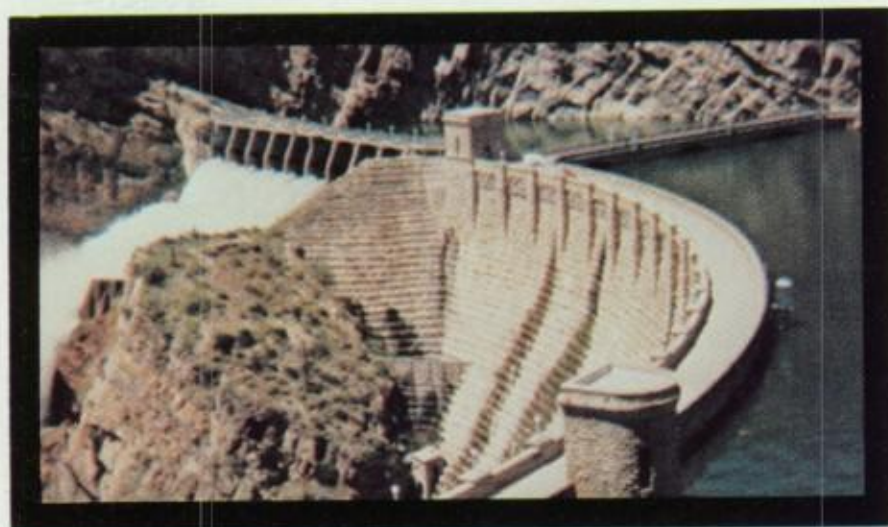

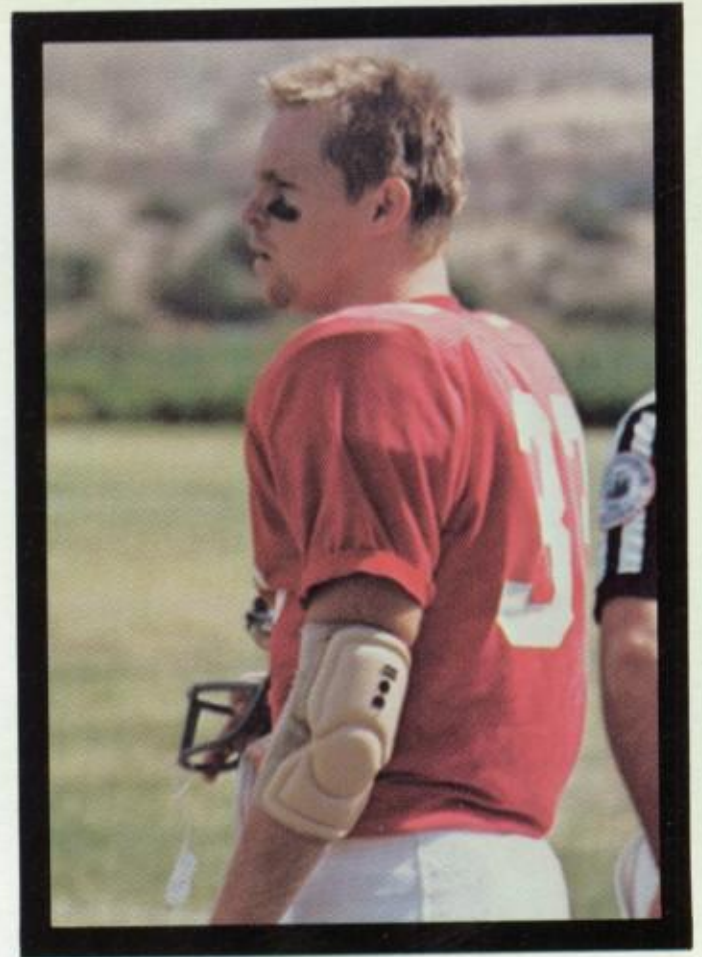

Orme has something for everyone, ranging from horsemanship, to football, to drama, to survival. It is the belief of the Orme society that the activities offered to the students should vary in interest so that each individual can do something that he/she will enjoy, and put forth an extreme effort to make the activity a worthwhile experience.

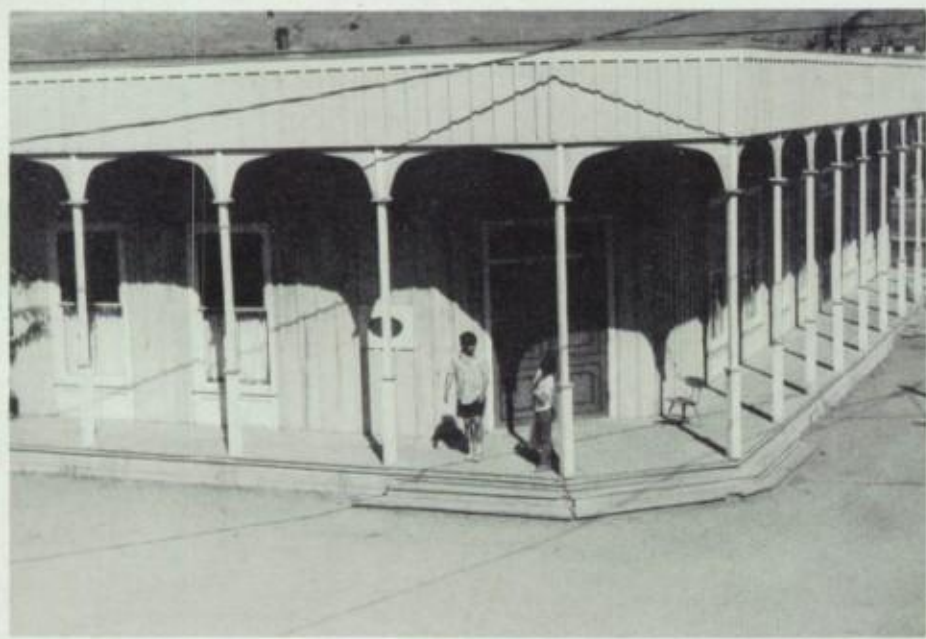

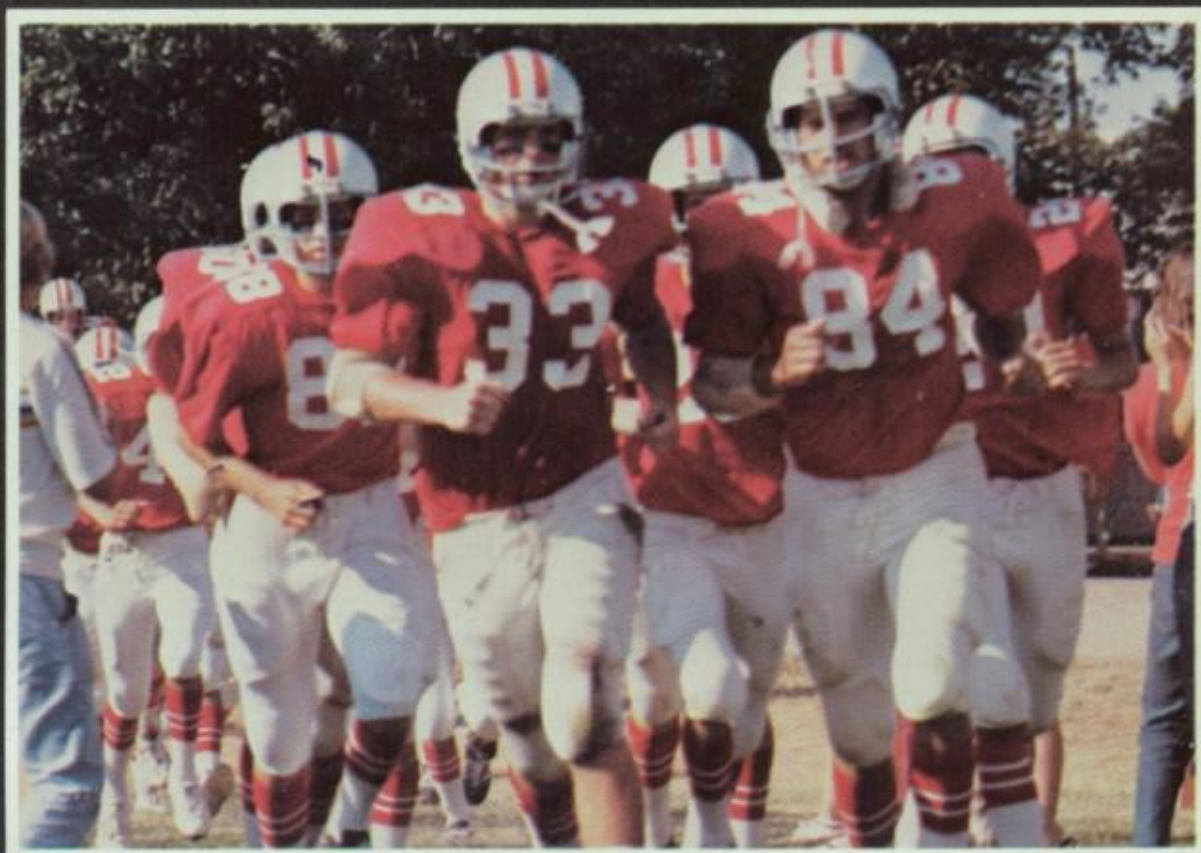

Orme has come along way in the past fifty years. During the first years of our school, the Orme School was a small community. Now, fifty years later, the campus has a little over 200 students. These students not only come from different parts of the U.S.A., but from all four corners of the world. Each individual brings with them a new culture for us to dwell on, and learn from.

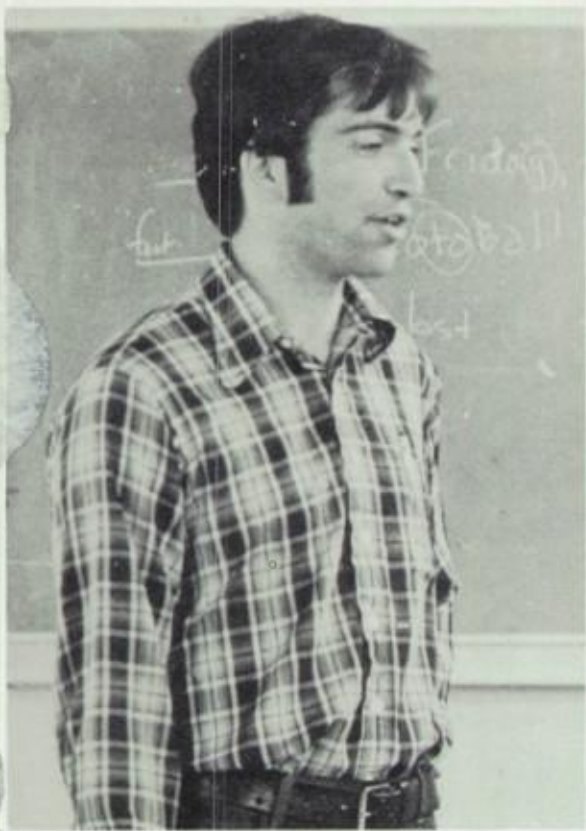

HOOFPRIINTS of 79/80 would like to dedicate this yearbook to the Orme family, of whom we are so proud!!!

If you ever have a youngster,
And he wants to foller stock,
The best thing you can do for him
Is to brain him with a rock.
Or if rocks ain't very handy,
You kin shove him down the well;
Do not let him be a cowboy,
For he's better off in Hell.

You may swear you'll never ride again,
And know you will not fail,
Till you hear a cavviada
Come a jinglin down the trail.
Then you pack up all your saggoons,
And prepare to pull your freight,
For you know you're just a cowboy
And your head ain't screwed on straight.

Mom and Dad, the ones who made it all possible. You are my guidance but you let me be me. Understanding and loving, you were always there. You never let me down when I needed a comforting hand or word to make it all seem right. I had my fears but you were always nearby. You showed me the light when it was dark and I have learned from the wrong things I have done. We had sad, happy and fun times, but most of all we shared our feelings and thoughts. Thanks Mom and Dad for everything you have done to make my life a better one.

I finally made it Mrs. Rowe and thank-you, C.B., my little sister, water fights and the Shack, baby test, Frenchy, shut up Phil, don't make any noise, Miss Cum Laude, Betty Boop, elephant scabs, Lulia and Jew, "J.R.", by the All American, Alright Erb, break out the C Clamps! All the things that we used to do

The Cheerleaders, together with the Mascots, have played an important part in boosting school spirit. Besides being active at home sports events, they traveled to quite a few off-campus games. They did pep rallies and made many posters for the games. Planning and decorating for the Homecoming Dance was also their responsibility, and the event was a huge success, from the money-raising aspects to the crowning of the King, Queen and attendants.

FOOTBALL

This year's football season was perhaps one of the most successful in many years, finishing with an 8 and 1 record. The Warriors fought long and hard to lead the school to a strong recognition by other schools around the state, and a fierce and intense pride that will not die easily in the years to come.

In perhaps the hardest hitting game of the season, the Warriors fought for a 21 to 13 win over Phoenix Christian, however, an extremely emotional game was to follow four weeks later. After losing a close game to San Pasqual in 1977, Coach Miller built a surprise that hit with the force of a hurricane. This year, the pride of San Pasqual was left stunned and beaten by a 22-6 score.

In a very fiercely contested game with Camp Verde, defeat came for the only time. Leaving the field with many in tears, the Warriors still had pride, and a victory over Judson to go.

Many will leave as seniors, but others are left to carry on the pride that will live forever in those that were here. This year's awards went to the following: Coaches Award - T. Los Banos; Off. Back - D. Tucker; Off. Line - B. Wilson; Def. Back - S. McCann; Def. Line - B. Gueringer; Most Improved - B. Wilmeth; Sec. Team All State Line Backer - D. Tucker

WRESTLING

The Warrior Wrestlers overcame lack of experience, a brutal schedule and a rash of injuries to win its own Invitational Tournament and the title of top Independent School in Arizona.

The word "Team" was never more appropriate for describing a group of Orme Wrestlers. With only four returning lettermen, and facing the longest and toughest schedule ever, the Warriors set about the task of building a team. Hidden in a 3-11-1 dual meet record is the development of many talented newcomers to a sport that requires the knowledge of many techniques and mat experience. The month of February marked the emergence, under the leadership of captains Todd Los Banos and Allan Hilton, of a team that could challenge for the Independent School crown.

In the final meet of the year, the Warriors garnered six gold medals, two silver, three bronze and a narrow five point victory in their own Invitational Tournament.

Todd Los Banos and Allan Hilton shared top individual honors this season. Todd was 16-3 overall, the most wins ever in one season by an Orme Wrestler. He was second at the Williams Tournament, third at the tough Joseph City Tournament and was 135 lb. champ and Outstanding Wrestler in the Warrior Invitational. Allan was 14-2 this year: he was second at Joseph City and pinned three straight opponents (one in 13 seconds) enroute to the 122 lb. crown in the Warrior Invitational.

Sophomore Rick Holway ended a strong 13-8 season with three pins in less than seven minutes to capture the 141 lb. title at the Warrior Invitational. Freshmen Norris Coit, in his first year of wrestling, was 9-8 on the season and 101 lb. champ at the Warrior meet. Junior Mike Simms overcame a painful rib injury to win the 191 lb. class in his final meet, and Freshman Rich Woodward capped a 5-8 campaign with a second place finish in the Warrior Tourney.

SOCCER

SURVIVAL

Beginning survival in the fall of 1979 had students start and finish the complete course. It was one of the strongest groups we have had for some time. Out of that group joined other survivalists for the Winter Term advanced program. The program went well until mid-January, then the weather turned against us. We are still hopeful that some of our major exercises, including the 48 hour solos, can be completed in the spring of 1980.

CHORAL GROUPS

The choral groups for 1979-80 are better than ever. The chorus, numbering 24, performed at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and numerous other chapel services. They will also make a substantial contribution to the Spring Musical "Bye, Bye, Birdie" filling both lead and supporting roles as well as chorus parts.

The Octet and Sextet, both select groups, have performed for major campus events, also traveling to both Phoenix and Tucson. At Christmas, the Octet caroled at the Biltmore Fashion Park Shopping center in Phoenix, and in April, will perform for the Orme Alumni Tea at the University of Arizona in Tucson. The Sextet was invited to sing for the Celebration of the Arts in Phoenix and will also travel to the U of A with the Octet.

All three groups will be involved in producing the practically annual Orme Extravaganza - onstage at the Horsecollar Theater on March 29.

THE CROTALUS

Copyread and crop, lead and layout - each term approximately one dozen juniors and seniors learn the meaning of such journalistic jargon through producing THE CROTALUS. An English III-IV elective, the journalism class is solely responsible for THE CROTALUS, a four page summary of Orme life in progress published twice each term.

The class is organized on the model of an actual newspaper operation, with ably filling the jobs of editors, reporters and layout specialists. The exposure to journalism is intense as deadlines must be met, but all join together to make each CROTALUS a special issue.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE

The Chapel Committee, under the Direction of "Rev", has had a very busy year. Their first major accomplishment of the year was organizing a very beautiful and emotional candle light service. Next, the Committee moved on in preparing for an exquisite Fine Arts service.

The members of Chapel Committee are a very active group and always encourage Religion as a part of student life at Orme.

KEY CLUB

This is an honorary organization of students service with the prime purpose of aiding the administration in hosting guests on campus. Members provide tours for prospective students, their families and act as interviewers in the admissions process. Attaining membership in the Key Club is an honorary award to students, who have positive leadership qualities, are neat and have a lot of spirit. Members are elected by the head master, assistant headmaster, director of admissions, the sponsor, Mrs. Joan Price, and Mr. Thomas, as well as the voting of the current student membership. The members are inducted into the Key Club during a Wednesday morning chapel service. Secrecy has been maintained until that time.

STUDENT SENATE

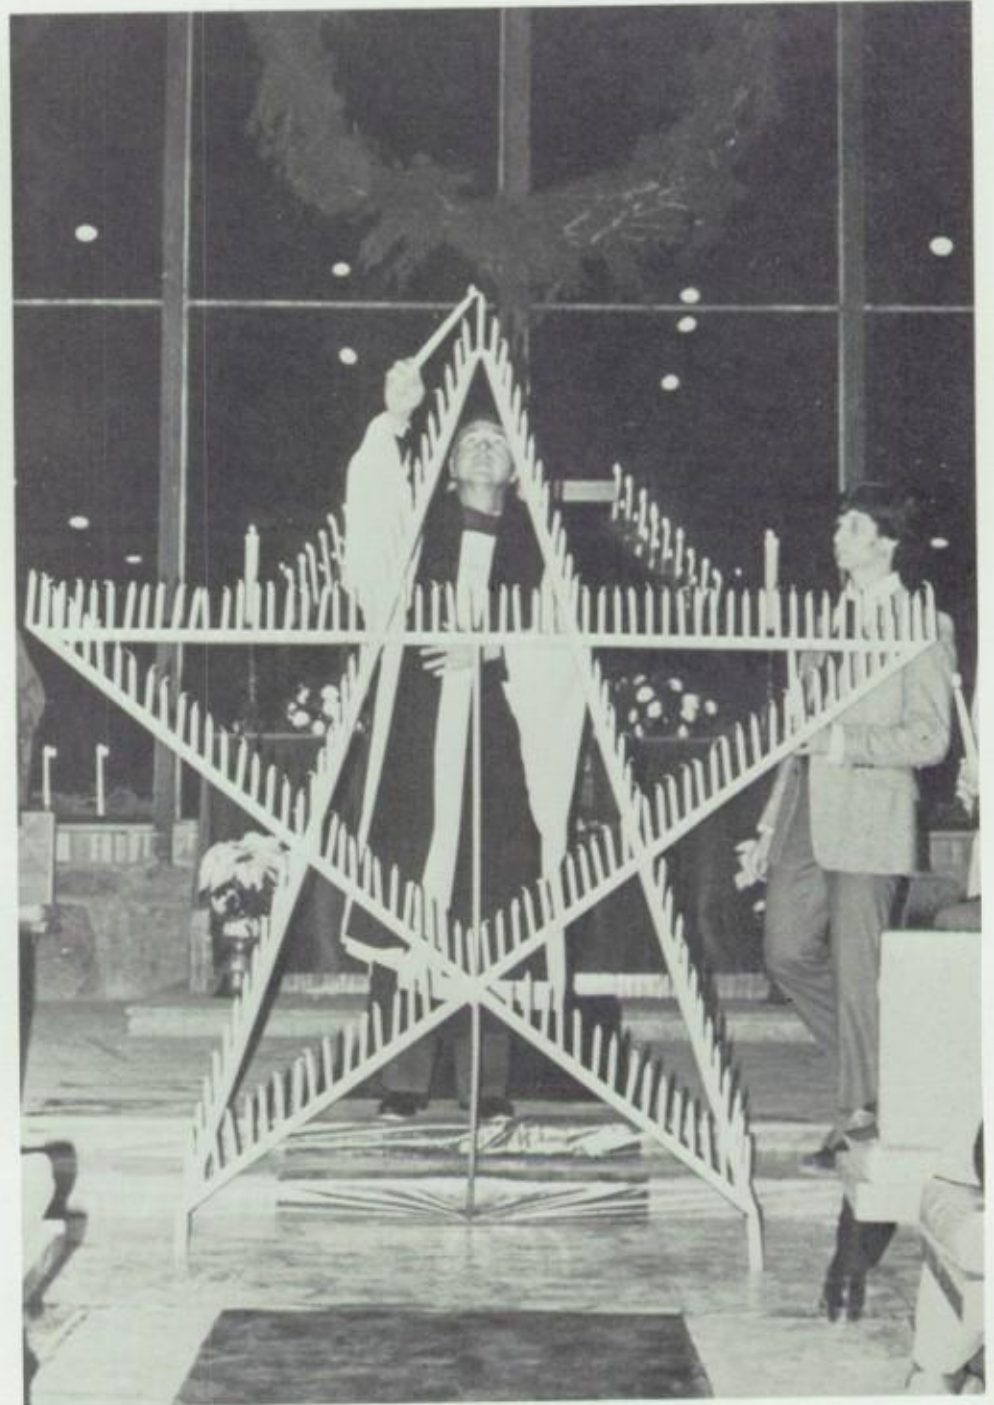

CANDLELIGHT

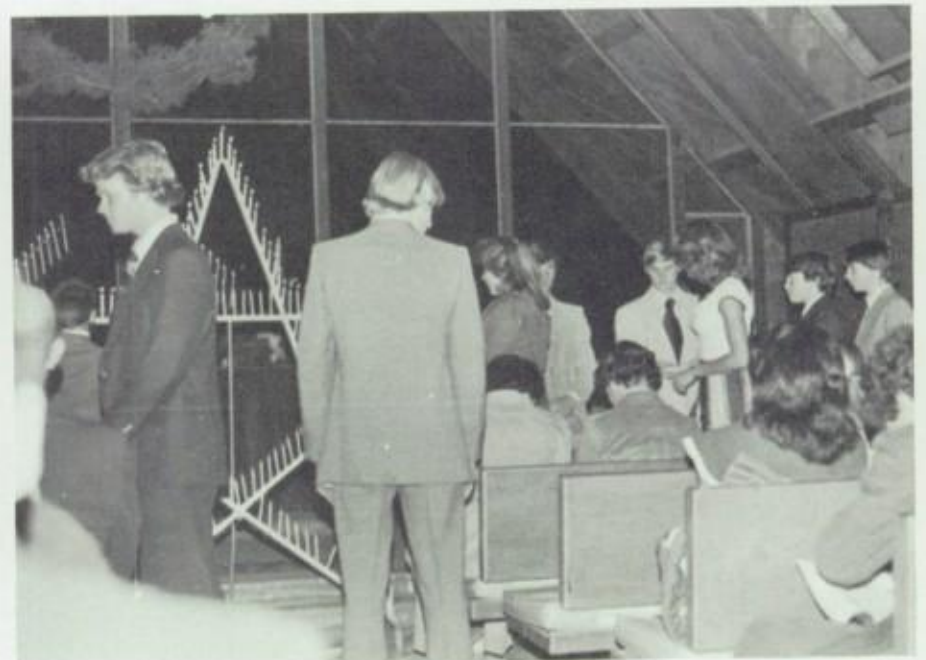

Candlelight service is a very meaningful event at the Orme Ranch. It takes place the evening before the students depart for Christmas break. The service is under the direction of Reverend Price, the school chaplain. Many students are involved in the preparation of this event. The chapel committee leaders work very intensely at making the occasion an evening filled with joy and meaning. Under the direction of Julia Romagnano the chorus sang a variety of inspiring Christmas carols which filled the chapel with beauty.

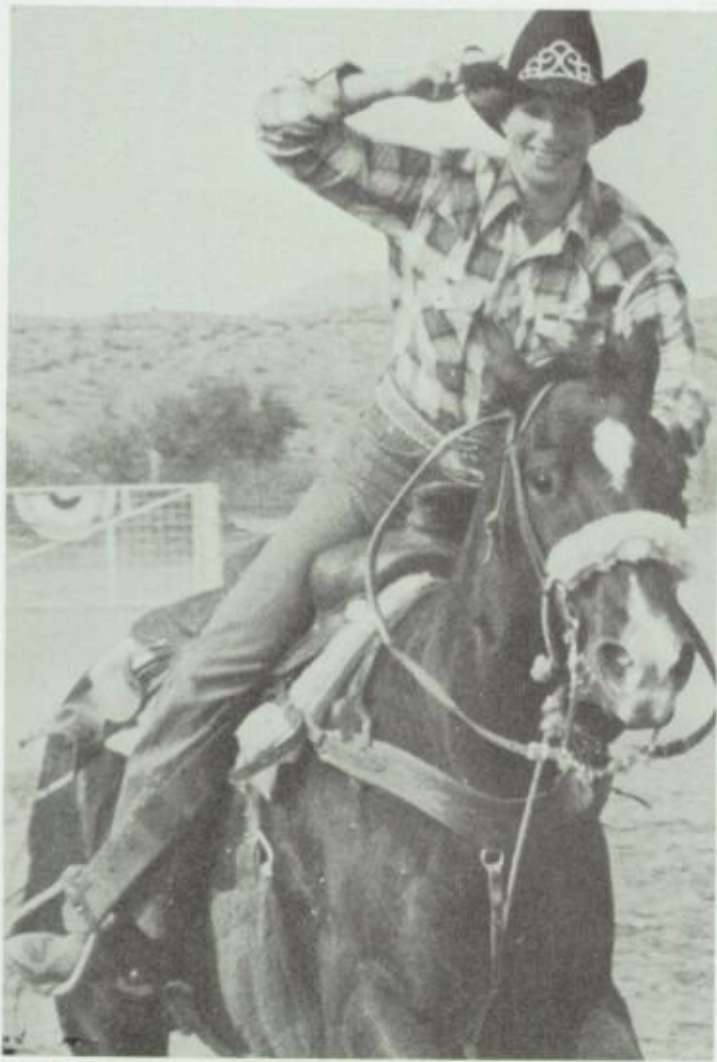

This years readings were performed by Reverend Price, Charlie Orme, Ned Gizinski, Cheryl Lubin, Michelle Fry, and Karen Offield. The reading selections reminded us of the true spirit of Christmas and left us with a satisfying feeling of goodness. This is one of the many events that the Orme School is proud to offer to the community.

This is always a special time at Orme. Parents from all over the United States come to spend the holiday with their children. Many different events are planned for the community to take part in. Exams end the morning of Thanksgiving and parents usually begin to arrive during the early afternoon. A very pleasant meal is planned for the evening. Once dinner is completed, the community moves over to the Horsecollar Theater to watch the drama club performance.

The following day is known as the "RODEO" day. Spectators begin to gather around the arena in the late morning. The rodeo continues on throughout the early afternoon. It is a very exciting event and Gary Powell, director of horsemanship, works very hard at making it so. The Orme School is very proud of this occasion and very honored to host so many visitors.

Staff, front row l-r: N. Gizenski, Editor, B. Conner, Photography Editor, G. Waddell, Advisor. Back row: M. Schacher, B. Sykes, J. Foster, L. Perez, J. Fry, P. Esser, Business Manager. S. DePoe, Not Pictured.

With an essentially inexperienced yearbook staff and some early deadlines facing them, the 1979-80 "Hoofprints" got off to a fast pace of taking photographs and designing the yearbook, with attention being given to the celebration of Ormes 50th Anniversary. Credit must be given to Mr. John Curry and his Photography Class for the many photographic services that were provided.

FINE ARTS

Fine Arts is an event that is enjoyed by all students. It is an entire week of working in different fields of art. The Orme School hosts professional artists that lead the students in various workshops. The spirit of Fine Arts usually begins Sunday evening during the chapel service. The students are always willing to help in the preparation of the exciting week ahead of them.

During the course of the week Orme students are found all over campus working very diligently at making the final product of their workshop a success. The various workshops include choral work, dance, drama, jewelry construction, film making, photography, creative writing, color and design, fabrics and fibers, and iron working.

This was the 12th annual celebration of Fine Arts and the entire community enjoyed themselves immensely. We are very thankful to the artists who come to us and spend a week with us, and who make us feel very proud of our own abilities.

HORSEMANSHIP

The Orme School sponsors an active 4-H club. Livestock projects are shown and sold at the Yavapai County 4-H Fair in the spring, while 4-H horse shows take place throughout the year. These shows provide the novice with excellent learning experiences without the expense and intense competition of open shows.

Orme sponsors two rodeos each year; one limited to Orme students and another open to outside competitors as well. With the completion of the English ring, plans being formulated for an Orme School Horse Show.

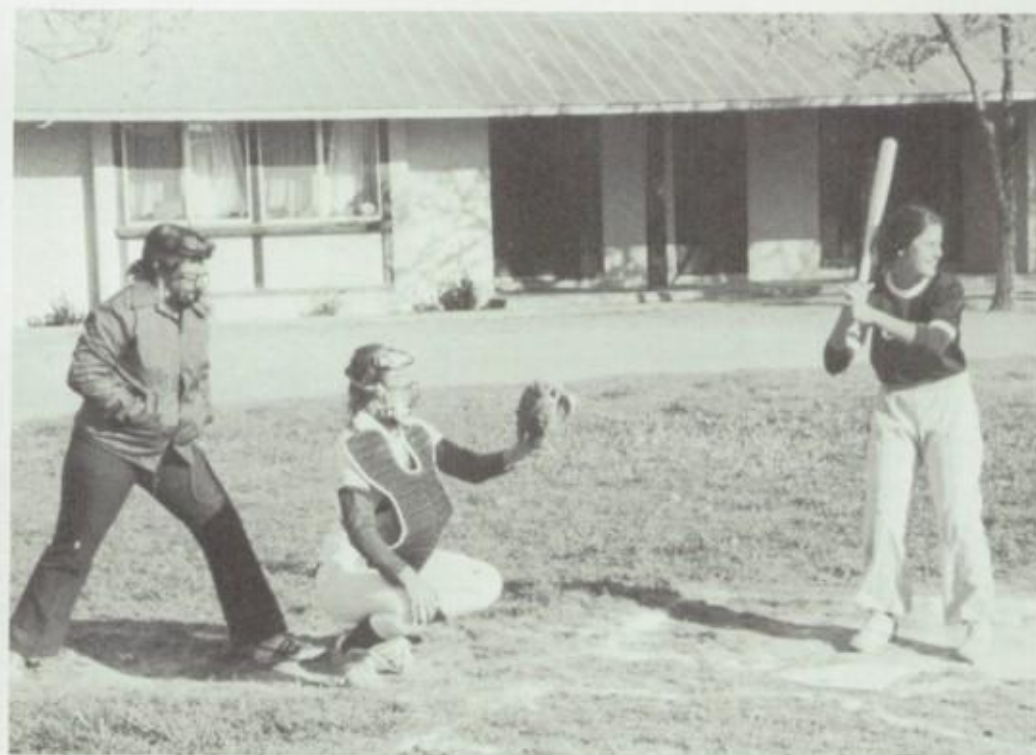

Trail riding is offered as a daily activity for students who simply wish to take a relaxed ride through the scenic country surrounding the school. Weekend cook-outs and overnight camping trips also take advantage of Orme's unique environment and help foster an appreciation of nature and the out-of-doors.

Students may board their own horses in the private facilities maintained by the school, and have the choice of barn stalls, half-covered stalls or open stalls. The ranch keeps a large herd of horses with animals to suit every level of riding ability for use by the school and summer camp.
